

San Jose Institute of Contemporary Art
News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT

Maureen Cappon-Javey

408.283.8155

maureen@sjica.org

Monotype Marathon Returning to the ICA
Sponsorships NNow on Sale for 15th Annual Print Exhibition and Auction

May 1, 2009, SAN JOSE, CA – Preparations are underway at The San Jose Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA) is to present the gallery's annual Monotype Marathon – a print exhibition and fundraising event the features the work over seventy five Bay Area's finest printmakers. The exhibition runs from July 1st to July 18th at the ICA and culminates with a silent auction fundraising event on the evening of July 18th. And new this year to the

The Monotype Marathon event begins with an intensive weekend of art-making by more than seventy-five professional artists in printmaking studios throughout the Bay Area. These artists are invited by the ICA to produce a number of monotypes prints during the marathon printmaking weekend event. The ICA selects the best work produce by each of the artists to show the exhibition and to offer for sale in the silent auction.

—more—