COME TRAVEL AGAIN WITH THE ICA ...to L.A.

Please join us as we re-inaugurate the ICA San José's travel program with three plus invigorating days in Los Angeles to kick off the new year. The trip is a benefit of membership at the Contemporary Collectors Circle (C3) level. Beginning late morning Friday, January 20, 2023 through Monday afternoon January 23, we will stay at The Omni downtown, just atop the Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA). Transportation to be provided throughout. The tour will include:

- Studio visits and private collection tours, including:
  - Glenn Kaino Studio
  - Mandy & Cliff Einstein collection
  - Private reception at LA Louver in celebration of their Alison Saar exhibition
- MOCA's Henry Taylor: B Sides (November 6, 2022 – April 30, 2023), an extraordinary mid-career survey of an outstanding painter

ICA San José
LA Trip 2023 (Jan. 20-23, 2023)

- At The Broad, a special curator-led tour of the multi-faceted William Kentridge: In Praise of Shadows (November 12 – April 9, 2023), the first major exhibition of Kentridge’s work in L.A. in over 20 years
- At the Japanese American National Museum we will get a behind-the-scenes tour, with thanks to ICA San José Board Chair Gordon Yamate.
- We will, of course, swing through several art galleries, with special visits -- old familiars to those who spend a lot of time in LA; or new-to-you locations that will become new “go to’s” for other travelers.
- Meals will be included, with reservations now being made.

Enjoy this energizing visit to Los Angeles with friends, and new acquaintances. Space is limited and we are already half-subscribed.
